Nearly $2,000 Saving Is Effected in New Budget

CITY INCOME ALSO EXPECTED TO FALL OFF DURING 1942-43

Presenting tentative budget estimates for the coming fiscal year, 1942-43, City Manager R. G. Manley has effected economies in the cost of city administration and maintenance amounting to $1,841, or almost $2,000 below the 1941-42 budget. The proposed budget will call for expenditures estimated at $83,628, as compared with $85,469 for the current year, 1941-42. Compared with 1940-41 expenditures of $90,902.62, the 1942-43 budget represents a reduction of $7,274.62.

FINES SLUMP

The 1942-43 estimated budget is in line with estimated city income from all sources for the coming year, which is anticipated to show a considerable drop all along the line. As an example, the city's revenue from fines alone has been decreased about $11,000 under what it was last year, it is shown.

Business licenses and permits also are expected to be much less. However, this item may not be so great, or might even increase, as a result of Upland's being placed in a critical defense housing area, but too much confidence should not be placed in this expectation, it is pointed out.

Action to raise the salaries of city employes had not been taken by the council previous to compilation of the 1942-43 budget estimate. However, this item will not make any material difference in the final budget setup as an emergency estimate in the proposed budget will cover the increase.

Street department costs have been pared to the bone in the new budget estimates. Although it is desired not to increase the tax rate, still it is felt that sufficient funds should be provided for the street department in order to provide sufficient maintenance so that repairs shall not be too expensive after the war emergency. It is felt that some funds should be set aside each year to provide street repair after the war.

Estimated budget items for 1941-42 and 1942-43 are, respectively: General government, $14,125 and $13,801; police, $16,780 and $15,135; fire, $13,337 and $13,662; inspection, $2,100 and $2,050; other protection, $1,322 and $1,380; health, $1,320 and $1,080; sanitation, $6,007 and $5,855.

Miscellaneous, $7,552 and $7,966; parks, $16,130 and $13,504; library, $7,900 and $7,900; streets, $3,380 and $3,216; bonds and interest, $4,251 and $3,111; emergency, $3,531 set-up for 1942-43. Subtracted from the total of these items is the water refund of $8,735 for 1941-42 and $8,563 for 1942-43.

Tentative tax rate set up for 1942-43 are: General, .47; park, .20; library, .15, and bonds, .26; totalling, $1.08.

Upland Will Hear New Horn Friday In County Tryout

Friday noon, June 26, has been designated by San Bernardino County Defense Council as the day and hour for an official county-wide tryout for all air raid warning devices throughout the county, it is announced.

At that time for a two to three minute period, Upland atmosphere will be punctuated with blasts by the new signal horn for which Upland city officials have been seeking permission for a tryout for several weeks. If the horn is successful in this trial, it is planned by the city to place several of them at vantage points within the district to provide adequate air raid warning.

Official permission for the county-wide tryout has been given by Captain Leon H. Camy, of the Pasadena office of the Office of Civilian Defense. Upland residents at distant points from the city hall, where the horn is installed, will aid City Manager R. G. Manley's office by reporting effectiveness of the new horn.

The all-clear signal will be sounded five minutes following the blackout signal test.

CHINA RELIEF FUND STILL FAR SHORT

Upland's quota in the nation-wide United China Relief campaign, now stands at the halfway mark, about $500 having been contributed thus far, according to the report given by Harland Horak, treasurer.

Dr. Samuel Hughes, chairman of the Upland United China Relief committee, is intensifying the campaign this week by enlisting the aid of a large executive board in an active drive for funds.

In addition to the humanitarian appeal that always wins response from the purse of America, the war situation in China now demands aid for the Chinese also as a matter of self-defense for this country.

"Victims of the war that has separated them from their parents, there are two million refugee children in China," said Dr. Hughes.

"You can, in a very real way," Dr. Hughes continued, "become a parent to one or more of these children by giving the small sum of $25 a year to support some child. To be sympathetic is not enough, Adopt a Chinese child by proxy. Make your family world wide."

All checks should be made to United China Relief, Harland Horak, treasurer. The contributions may be left with Mr. Horak at the Upland branch of Bank of America, turned in to the First National Bank of Upland.

Dr. Hughes today announced his executive board as follows: Eugene Nisbet, mayor of Upland; C. E. Grier, chairman of the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors; Frank K. Nichols, manager of the Upland branch, Bank of America; Allan Barr, cashier First National Bank of Upland; the Rev. George West Barrett, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church; E. C. Pierce, commander of Upland post of the American Legion; the Rev. C. R. Heisey, pastor of the Brethren in Christ church; Ernest Tweed Stone, president of Upland Rotary club; Forrest E. Doucette, editor of the Ontario Herald; Mrs. L. E. Moser, president of the Upland Woman's club; Vernon V. Paine, president of Upland Lions club; the Rev. Rex E. Lawhead, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Evelyn Miller, Mrs. A. L. Weber, H. M. Guy, D. J. Cameron and Dr. Chas. B. Taylor.

Upland Granted $4,804.80 Share Of License Fees

Apportionments of $4,804.80 in motor vehicle license fees to Upland, and of $74,892.80 to San Bernardino County are announced in Sacramento by the department of motor vehicles.

These apportionments represent vehicle license fee collections for the period July 1, 1941, to March 31, 1942. This tax, also known as the "in lieu" tax, formerly was collected by cities and counties as a personal property levy.

The local apportionments were based on a population of 6,316 for the city and of 98,448 for the county and were a portion of a grand total of $9,560,811.58 apportioned to all the cities and counties of California. The grand total is about $100,000 less than for the same period of 1941.

CURB-SIDEWALK REPAIR ORDERED BY CITY COUNCIL

Repair of street curbs throughout the city, in many places reported to be in deplorable condition, has been ordered by Upland city council in instructions to City Manager to proceed with the replacement and repair of curbs and sidewalks where necessary.

It was pointed out that there are many places where tree roots need cutting and removal of dirt is necessary to put curbs and sidewalks in a proper state of repair. The action was taken upon motion of Councilman Hottel, seconded by Councilman Goodban.

REPAIR R. R. WALK

Repair of the pedestrian approach to the foot crossing over the Santa Fe tracks at Second avenue also was ordered by the council. It was brought to the attention of the councilmen that the inclined south approach is loose gravel and presents a considerable foot hazard. Repairing the crossing, it is to be given a hard, oiled foot surface to eliminate loose gravel and insecure footing.

In the matter of determining the width of South Palm avenue, the council voted in accordance with recommendation of the city planning commission that the street be maintained at the full standard 36-foot width.

War Insurance Will Be Studied By City Council

Attention of Upland city council was called to a wartime need, the advisability of war risk insurance for city property and installations, by Marion Grothe and Fred E. Draper at Thursday's meeting.

Explaining that emergency government protection in this respect would lapse on July 1, Mr. Grothe recommended that the city act to continue this valuable protection.

SEVEN UPLANDERS INTO ARMY TODAY

Leaving Upland Selective Service headquarters at an early hour this morning, almost before the city had begun to stir, a contingent of men included seven local men.

Those who started on their way today to enter upon new duties in the armed services were: Robert E. Sawyer, Paulino B. Jobahib, Petrolino C. Caindec, Guillarmo A. Agbayani, Dionicio A. Anno, Santiago Del Pilar, and Mariano S. Duque, all of Upland.

Alta Lomans included with this morning's departures were: Garonimo D. Madamba and Nobel B. Holforty, while from Cucamonga was Robert F. Ford.

Selective service calls during July are expected to be the largest so far, it is indicated by local board officials.

USO STILL ONLY HALF WAY TO GOAL

At last reporting about $1,200 subscriptions to the U.S.O. fund drive are now approaching the $1,800 mark, or a little over the halfway mark toward the $3,080 quota set for Upland, it is announced by Henry M. Busch, chairman of the drive.

With returns of drive workers not all in as yet, it is indicated by Mr. Busch that there is expectation that total contributions may yet reach the sum of around $2,000. Included in the Upland quota are contributions of Foothill communities amounting to $243.75 for Cucamonga; $235 for Etiwanda and some $35 for Alta Loma.

Contributors still desiring to give to this essential war work may still leave gifts for the U.S.O. at either of the Upland banks or at Upland chamber of commerce, Mr. Busch said.

U.S.Must Lead Post-War Regeneration Dr. Sterling Tells Upland Rotary Club

Europe economically bankrupt, disease ridden and its people on the very verge of physical breakdown is the picture of the end of the present conflict presented to Upland Rotarians at their luncheon meeting today by Dr. J. E. Wallace Sterling, professor of history at California Institute of Technology, who spoke on "Germany at War and After".

Here, he pointed out, would be the need for a thorough, all-inclusive economic program. Said that peace would not be a simple matter of the reallocation of territory and general readjustment, "but also a tremendous humanitarian task of bringing all Europe back from the threshhold of hell."

U. S. MUST LEAD

Dr. Sterling said that there is very little disagreement over the fact that Germany must be disarmed, but whether totally or to what degree is still a many-sided question. However, he made it clear that in the peace which of necessity will have to be enforced, the United States would have to take the lead, aided, in the order of their importance by Russia, the British Commonwealth of Nations, and China.

In discussing the problem of the readmission of Germany to the family of nations, he pointed out that, basically, in the Atlantic Charter, there has been no disposition to exclude Germany from negotiations or withhold the right of self-determination.

TREATY BRED ILLS

In the very beginning of his talk, Dr. Sterling pointed out the terms of the Versailles treaty, which, in prohibiting Germany to carry on experiments and military organization, laid the seeds for the evolution of the system which paved the way for Hitler and gave him the tools to lead the world back into war. Through suppression, Germany, he explained, found other ways to carry on, so that when Hitler came to power he found all ready the necleus of a well-trained organization.

"VICTORY-WEALTH"

Dr. Sterling went into detail in describing the works of the "economic" and "military" general staffs, and the years these organizations spent from 1935 to 1939 in preparing plans for the German "march of anticipation". The German view, he pointed out, reversed the old axim that "wealth makes for victories" and supplanted it with "victories make wealth".

The plans of economic general staff were tested when, during the Polish invasion, this group moved into the Saar basin and places near the French-British line and moved whole industries to safer points. Even so, the economic staff has followed in the wake of troops either to remove everything or to put it in order.

EXTEND GRASP

The second and third duties of the economic staff were to seize all gold and rolling stocks and public utilities, putting into practice the German view that "victory brings wealth", and to establish continued means of confiscation of all private property.

Current practices employed by German troops, Dr. Sterling said, were nothing more nor less than the extension of legal looting. With the legal tender issued for each invaded country, Germany buys all goods and leaves the banks of the country stacked with worthless German promises to pay after peace shall be made by Germany.

To cap it all off, he told how Germany's long range plan exacts tribute from conquered countries every 41 days equal to the total of her reparations indebtedness at the end of the last war, which Germany charges up to "cost of occupation".

HUXTABLE BUYS STORE BUILDING

Milton F. Huxtable has purchased the two story brick business building at 251 Second avenue, it was announced today.

Miss Sarah Linney of Pasadena is the former owner of the structure, which was used as a men's clothing store until recently.

Mr. Huxtable, proprietor of a drug store bearing his name, said he purchased the property as a business investment and that no definite plans had been made concerning the property.

LLOYD DICKENS TO MEET JACK STORY

Lloyd Dickens or Jack Story will win the annual tournament at Red Hill Country club and the trophy offered by A. R. Gemmel.

Mr. Dickens, one of the veteran members of the club, defeated Vice President Ellery F. Wright for the "wright" to enter the finals. Story had eliminated his foe the previous week.

Next Sunday's match will bring to a finish one of the most spirited tourneys ever held at the club.

Dickens won over the Ford dealer 1 up at the 20th hole.

FRIDAY COMMUNITY PICNIC FEATURES HOME TALENT SHOW

Friday's first community picnic is said by those in charge of Upland's summer recreational program to have been a successful event, and it is anticipated that succeeding Fridays will see it grow in popularity, they believe.

Some 175 persons were estimated to have been present, including about 40 soldiers from the Cucamonga camp who were entertained by local picnic groups, each group providing sufficient picnic to entertain two soldier guests.

ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS

Families or groups desiring to have two soldiers to share their hospitality this coming Friday night are asked to call Mrs. D. F. Jones, 316-447, so that those in charge will be able to make arrangements with the camp for soldiers to attend. The picnic begins at 6:30 p.m.

Finding it more convenient to games and for dancing which follows, the picnic this Friday will be held on the back lawn at the Elementary school along Arrow highway.

HOME TALENT

Local talent night will be the picnic entertainment feature this week in addition to the regular dancing and games. The program which has been lined up is given by Robert Marineau as follows:

Juggling act by Edwin Dean; popular song numbers by Roger Moore; tap dancing by Georgia Allison; trumpet number by Stanley Gunstream and a drum number by Harold W. Cook Jr. Any who desire to contribute to the home talent program are asked to call Mr. Marineau, 314-518.

Mrs. Orin Hook and daughter, Miss Betty Hook, who completed her junior year at Chaffey this month, have gone to Pasadena to spend the summer months with Mrs. Hook's sister.

John B. Meek will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the air corps, the rating being formally given him tomorrow at the Cal-Aero academy.

He has just completed an 11 week training course at the air corps officers' candidates school in Miami Beach, Florida. He and Mrs. Meek returned yesterday from Florida to their home, 1140 North Euclid avenue.

Authorities at Cal-Aero this morning said Mr. Meek would be stationed at Cal-Aero as the physical director of the entire physical fitness program at the South Euclid avenue training center. Prior to going to Florida, the former athletic star was a civilian member of the physical education staff. His new position will place him as the directing head of the entire physical training activity.

NAGASAKI CLEARED OF ALIEN CHARGES

Cleared of all suspicion of questionable alien activity, Tobe Nagasaki, Upland Japanese, taken into custody by the F. B. I. some time ago, will soon be able to join his family at Poston, Arizona.

This word was received today by Chief of Police E. C. Mehl in a communication from Mr. Nagasaki, who told that he had received a government order on Saturday directing his release from the Tujunga Canyon Detention station.

"I was overjoyed to hear about it, and appreciate your kindness for what you have done for me," he wrote Chief Mehl, who also is in receipt of numerous letters from local Japanese in Poston and the east conveying many expressions of gratitude to him for kindness and aid he has given in their trials.

City to Collect Rubber To Aid Civilian Defense

Join Upland Swim, Hike Party, Local Youngsters Urged

Many Upland children are enjoying Tuesday and Thursday afternoons disporting in Chaffey plunge under the supervision of Upland summer recreational leaders.

The children meet at the Elementary school grounds on these days in time to start their hike to Chaffey at 1:30 p.m. sharp. The trip to and from the plunge is made on foot on Euclid parkway, with the children accompanied on the hike and while in the pool by Director Robert Marineau and Mrs. George Allison.

Many Upland children who go to the plunge separately are urged to join the group. By so doing, they will be admitted to the pool for 14½ cents instead of 17 cents, as when they go alone.

Swimming at the plunge is supervised and all children have an opportunity to have swimming lessons under the instruction of Mr. Marineau.

$1 GIVEN FROM DIVIDEND FUND

The Upland News food advertising fund totals $27.50 for this week.

This money will be offered at 6:30 p.m. Thursday to a person whose address will be selected in The News' complete residential directory. To qualify persons must buy at least $1 worth of food at one or more of the food stores advertising in today's Upland News Wednesday or Thursday.

Read the food advertisments in today's paper.

A slight change has been made in the list of food stores eligible to give out sales slips in The News' plan. Following are the food stores advertising today: Lee's market, Euclid market, Caso's, Central Meat market, Safeway, Johnson's grocery, Al's market, Anderson's, Olson's and Clint's produce.

Mrs. Vernon Arnold, who lives in apartment No. 1 at 549 East Ninth street, failed to win the $25 Dividend day fund last evening just because she did not make it a point to obtain sales slips when she made a purchase Saturday.

In previous weeks she had obtained sales slips but for some reason "she just never thought about them for this week."

As the result she was given $1 from the dividend day fund instead of $25.

Lions Return From Santa Cruz Conclave

Four members of the Upland Lions club and their wives returned here over the week-end from Santa Cruz where last week they attended the California-Nevada Lions convention.

On the return trip, the party in the Glenn M. Atwood auto made a brief stop Saturday afternoon at Dos Palos to visit Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Brest, who are temporarily living there because of a big construction project. With Mr. Atwood were Mrs. Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. William Gilliland and Mrs. Floyde L. Atwood and Miss Louise Atwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Musser and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Paine returned by auto Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Busch were also at the convention but they continued on to San Francisco, where they are vacationing this week. Mrs. Floyde Atwood and daughter visited relatives in San Francisco during the convention period, they accompanying the Lion delegates on the trip as far as Santa Cruz.

MAYOR NISBET SETS FRIDAY FOR ALL-OUT RUBBER COLLECTION

Approximately 22 tons of scrap rubber to date have been delivered by Upland residents, it is reported by Upland service station operators whose stations are the concentration centers in the nationwide drive to reinforce America's rubber reserve. But it is not enough to slacken up at 22 tons, it is pointed out by Mayor Eugene G. Nisbet, who has designated this Friday, June 26, as a city-wide day for intensified rubber collection.

In Friday's special drive, Uplanders are called upon to contribute their rubber for double duty — for the support of local Civilian Defense as well as for the National war effort. The idea is to make it stretch as far as possible, it is emphasized.

SEARCH HOMES

People are not asked to strip their electric wires of rubber insulation—that is very necessary to the safety of their homes — but they are urged to go through their attics, their basements, their garages with a fine tooth comb and gather together every ounce of rubber which is not absolutely essential and see to it that it is turned in to the nation's rubber stock pile during the present drive.

Mayor Nisbet calls upon every Upland resident to make a special effort between now and Friday to round up every bit of spare rubber for the aid of the war effort.

RUBBER ONLY

City trucks on Friday will make their first curb collection of salvage, and the entire effort this week is to be devoted to the rubber drive, Mayor Nisbet declares. Residents are asked not to put out any other salvage materials this week. Only rubber will be picked up; anything else will be left to be picked up on the fourth Friday in July.

Scrap rubber may be placed on the curb in boxes in front of homes this Friday and city trucks will make collections during the day. All quantities of rubber collected by the city on Friday will be delivered to local service stations where it will be sold.

Proceeds from the sale of this rubber will be used for local Civilian Defense needs, Mayor Nisbet declared. Funds are needed by Upland Civilian defense units for the purchase of much needed equipment and supplies, and every citizen can give important aid by making sure that his rubber donations are on his front curb early Friday.

Chaffey Summer Classes Offer Vital Subjects

Summer classes now in session at Chaffey junior college include courses of considerable interest to civilian defense as well as industrial defense workers.

A finger printing class meets every Monday and Thursday evening from 7 to 9 p.m. Sponsored by members of the West End Women's Ambulance and Defense corps, the class is under the instruction of Forest Schipps.

Bookkeeping classes meet Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m. A short survey course and review of advanced work is given under the instruction of Alex Mendoza.

P.B.X. classes meet in four sections, Mondays and Wednesdays, and Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m. The three weeks' course under Mrs. S. Okerson provides instruction in local and long distance procedure. The three above mentioned classes all meet in Chaffey junior college building.

A canteen cookery class meets Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Ontario Methodist church.

Peace and Not the War Is Principal Topic When Men Get Together

When men get together at a convention in these times, the principal topic of discussion is not the war.

Instead, it is the world after the war.

That we will win the war eventually, there is no apparent doubt. It's only a matter of time until the Allied Nations will have the machinery needed. Then will come peace; but what will that actually mean?

In Santa Cruz last week Lions club members from all parts of California and Nevada united to talk about their organization and its opportunities to serve in this war. Your local scribe and others from here were in attendance.

Speakers talked on various phases of the war. The addresses could be termed "inspirational pep talks"—not urging us to fight better, but urging us to be better prepared to take our part in making the peace lasting—this time.

You have heard it said: "Let's really finish this war."

Considerable thought is now being given to: "Let's have a plan so that the peace will really last this time."

—o—

At another gathering in Palo Alto, where newspapermen met for craft discussions, we learned of the vital necessity of "zipping the lip" tighter than ever. Local news items about local boys in camps will be even more brief than heretofore. It's got to be done, say the army authorities, so the enemy will be unable to learn anything about how many men are in camp and of possible troop movements.

It's going to be a long war.

No one knows, of course, much about it, but military students gave the impression that Hitler and the Japs have gotten such a terrific jump on us that it will take some powerful fighting and long-continued battles to dislodge them.

—o—

The war is transforming the landscape, and even life itself in California.

Army camps are not many miles apart along many of the principal arteries. At many places are anti-aircraft guns and other defense equipment. Army trucks crowd the highways. Men in uniforms are in every community. Life is geared to defensive and offensive preparations.

The public appears to be really in this war.

Bridge Breakfast Is To Be Given by Woman's Club

Planned as one of the major June-time social events, a bridge breakfast will be held next Tuesday in the Upland Woman's club house, the sponsor being the ways and means committee of the club.

Since there are few parties or entertainment events to claim attention at this time, the benefit breakfast is expected to attract a large attendance of women in Upland and the surrounding communities.

Breakfast will be served at 9 o'clock and plans call for this to be made an especially pleasant hour. The bridge tourney will follow and prizes will be awarded to the players.

Ways and means committee in charge of the bridge breakfast includes Mrs. S. M. Jessup, chairman; Mrs. Marvin Francisco and Mrs. Earl E. Dunning.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Ada W. Galentine or with any member of the ways and means committee.

Miss Wadsworth and James V. Wiseman Exchange Vows

A wedding of interest to many friends throughout the Chaffey district occurred Friday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Virginia Wadsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Wadsworth of 660 East Fourth street, Ontario, was claimed in marriage by James Vincent Wiseman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Wiseman of 380 West Ninth street, Upland.

The double ring marriage service was performed in the sanctuary of the Upland Methodist church, the Cathedral of the Foothills, by the pastor, Dr. Samuel Hughes.

For the nuptial occasion the chancel and altar were beautifully decorated, the flowers being arranged under the direction of Mrs. Frank F. Palmer. Potted palms provided a background for baskets of white gladioli and white larkspur, the arrangement being completed with four tall seven-branch candelabra bearing lighted cathedral candles. Another basket of the favored white flowers and two smaller candelabra graced the altar.

Pre-ceremony music was provided by brothers of the bride, Harold Wadsworth, organist, and Ralph Wadsworth, violinist. Organ selections were "Liebestraum" (Liszt), "Kamennoi—Ostrow" and "Romance" (Rubenstein) and "I Love You Truly" (Bond). The organist also played Wagner's "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" as the processional, and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the recessional. Selections played by the violinist were "Oh Promise Me" (deKoven) and "Ave Maria" (Schubert).

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white moire taffeta, which Mrs. Wadsworth and Mrs. Wiseman had the privilege of making. It was fashioned with long fitted bodice and full gathered skirt with slight train. Completing her costume was a bridal veil falling in soft folds from a painted cornet and ending in a long train. The veil was the one worn by Mrs. Gardner W. Spring at her wedding and by her daughter, Mrs. Austin Joy, when she was a bride. She wore a double strand of pearls and carried a Bible, to which was attached a white orchid and shower of satin ribbon and bouvardia.

The maid of honor, Miss Pauline Jacobs of Upland, and the bridesmaid, Miss Eleanor Egly of Covina, were dressed identically, each wearing a gown of pink moire taffeta, fashioned like that of the bride's, and each carrying a sheaf of white gladioli and blue delphinium tied with blue ribbon bows. White flowers were worn in their hair.

The flower girl, little Miss Barbara Campbell, carrying baby roses, wore a frock of turquoise moire taffeta. The ring bearers were little Miss Kathleen Shimmin, wearing a turquoise frock identical with that of the flower girls, and Master Denny Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Moore, wearing a white suit.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Leonard Mather of Fontana, and the ushers were Herbert Humber of Ontario, and Roger Moore and Arthur Sherbondy of Upland.

Mrs. Wadsworth was attired in a gown of dusty rose crepe and Mrs. Wiseman, mother of the bridegroom, wore dusty blue crepe. Each wore a corsage of gardenias.

Approximately 350 guests attended the wedding and were greeted at the reception held in Fellowship hall of the church, where salmon and rose colored gladioli provided the decoration. White gladioli and candles graced the table at which Mrs. E. A. Dart presided. She was assisted by Mrs. Leslie Standlea, Mrs. Douglas Birdsall, and the Misses Betty Ann Horsch, Norma Stout, Roberta Manley, Doris Merchant, Ora Dee Alexander, Olive Bryant and Peggy Blair. Miss Helen Lonanecker was in charge of the guest book.

When Mr. and Mrs. Wiseman left for a brief wedding trip, the bride wore a dress of sage green crepe with tan accessories and light brown coat.

The bride is a recent graduate of Chaffey junior college and Mr. Wiseman graduated from Chaffey and from the University of California at Berkeley, later doing post-graduate work at Claremont college. He is employed as chemist at the West End Chemical Co. plant near Trona, where they will make their home.

A number of out-of-town relatives were present for the wedding, several coming from as far as Sutter county.

Miss Doris Merchant Becomes Bride of Wallace Waters

Miss Doris Merchant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Merchant of Ontario, former residents of Upland, and Wallace Warren Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Waters, also of Ontario, were united in marriage late Sunday afternoon, the ceremony occurring at 5 o'clock in the sanctuary of the Upland Methodist church, the Cathedral of the Foothills.

Using the double ring ceremony, the Rev. Will South, pastor of the Upland Church of the Nazarene, performed the marriage service.

Preceding the ceremony, Jack Porter, accompanied by Miss Pauline Jacobs, organist, sang "All For You" and "Because" (D'Hardelot). Miss Jacobs also played the traditional marches, the "Bridal Chorus" from Wagner's "Lohengrin" as the processional, and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the recessional.

The bride was attired in a white satin wedding gown, fashioned with lace yoke and short train. With it she wore a fingertip illusion veil and she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia centered with an orchid. Her only jewelry was a bracelet, a gift of the groom. She was given in marriage by her father.

Serving the bride as maid of honor was Miss Gwendolyn Merchant of Upland, who wore Copenhagen blue taffeta and carried a French bouquet of white sweet peas and pink rose buds.

Bridesmaids were Miss Alta Waters, of Ontario, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Dorothy Dickinson of Whittier. Each wore a gown of blue taffeta and carried a French bouquet of pink sweet peas and blue delphinium, with pink ribbon streamers.

H. A. Clegg of Pomona attended the bridegroom as best man and the ushers were Forrest Dyer, William Poister and Harold Naylor.

Carrying a white basket tied with bows of pink ribbon, little Beverly Ann Sheets of Upland served as flower girl, scattering white rose petals.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the garden at the home of the bride's parents, 134 Hawthorne drive, Ontario. Presiding at the refreshments table were Mrs. Kenneth Decker and Mrs. Oren Decker.

Mr. and Mrs. Waters left at once for Yosemite, where they will spend a week. For her traveling costume the bride wore a dress of beige mesh cloth with a jacket of British tan faille and beige and British tan accessories.

The bride attended the Upland schools, was graduated from Chaffey high school and was a freshman in Chaffey junior college during the past year.

Mr. Waters, a graduate of Chaffey high school and junior college, is employed as a mechanic at Cal-Aero. He and his bride will make their home in Ontario.

Stipe-Van Antwerp Wedding Occurs Sunday Noon

Miss Lucille Stipe, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Stipe of Cucamonga, became the bride of LaVerne Earl Van Antwerp in a ceremony performed at noon Sunday in the presence of approximately 100 guests assembled in the Cucamonga Community Methodist church.

The Rev. Don W. Speer, pastor of the church, performed the marriage service.

Coral colored gladioli and blue delphinium were used in the church decorations. Mrs. Charles Beckley, pianist, played several selections, including the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Dallas Gladsen, accompanied by Mrs. Beckley, sang "I Love You Truly" (Bond) and "Because" (D'Hardelot).

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Homer Stipe, was attired in a tailored suit of gold mesh cloth with gold colored straw hat and white accessories. She wore a corsage of two golden colored orchids.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Clinton Farquhar, who wore a French blue dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's best man was Clifton Chappel.

An informal reception was held in the church, with the bride's sister, Miss Bessie Stipe, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Homer Stipe, assisting the bridal party in greeting the guests.

Later a luncheon was served to the bridal party and several relatives at the Fontana Inn.

The bride is a member of the faculty of the Cucamonga school and is a graduate of Chaffey high school and of the Santa Barbara State college. She is a member of the Upland Business and Professional Women's club.

Mr. Van Antwerp, son of Mrs. J. E. Rayburn of Porterville, received his education in the Porterville schools and in Northwestern university. He is employed at the Exchange Orange Products plant in Ontario. He and his bride plan to reside in Cucamonga.

All attending the luncheon are to bring table service and their own sugar.

What you don't owe won't hurt you.

As-We-Like-It Club Studies Book by Dr. Foster

The book, "A Rocky Mountain Parson", written by the late Dr. Bert Foster, Episcopal minister, was the topic of the program enjoyed by members of the As-We-Like-It club when they met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. W. Palmer, 376 North Euclid avenue.

Mrs. V. H. Wilson continued the club's study of the western portion of the United States by reading from and reviewing Dr. Foster's book.

Stories of incidents in the busy life of a mission preacher in the pioneer days proved fascinating to the club women, whose interest in the book was increased by the fact that it was written by Dr. Foster, who was well known as the rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church for many years.

The review of this book will be completed at the next meeting to be held in July.

Attending the meeting Saturday were Mrs. Frank M. Baxter, Mrs. Mary Eckerman, Mrs. W. F. Kitchel, Mrs. V. H. Wilson, Mrs. W. H. Hawkinson, Mrs. Edith Crane, Mrs. E. A. Magill, Mrs. Lansing T. Vedder, Mrs. Jeannette Whitmer, Miss Sinabel Hart and Mrs. Palmer.

Eastern Star Meeting Last Evening Is Special Event

Making a gala event of their annual past matrons and past patrons night, Upland chapter, Order of Eastern Star, entertained a large number of guests last evening with a varied program.

All stations were filled by past matrons and past patrons of the chapter, Mrs. Earl C. Thomas presiding as worthy matron and Verner H. Wilson, as worthy patron.

All past matrons wore corsages in coral and white, Mrs. Thomas' color combination when she was worthy matron of the chapter.

The regular chapter session was conducted and was followed by the program. Charles Donnelly of Etiwanda, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Thomas Donnelly, entertained with cello solos.

The music was followed by a mock wedding that brought gales of laughter. Planned as a recognition of the recent marriage of one of the popular members and a past matron of the chapter, Mrs. O. O. White (Mrs. Gust Anderson) of Pasadena, the mock wedding was presented by a group of Star members, all in period costumes from the days of pantalettes through the gay nineties and later years. Mrs. Blanche M. Loch was the blushing bride and John Scott the gallant bridegroom.

After the "wedding," the past matrons and past patrons presented Mrs. White with a handsome wedding gift.

Refreshments were served in the dining hall, where coral and white gladioli were used in the decorations and the same colors were employed in the place favors.

Approximately 125 members and guests were in attendance, chapters from Pomona and Claremont to Riverside and Redlands being represented.

Hostesses for the evening were encumbent officers of the chapter, headed by Mrs. John Scott, worthy matron.

Miss Draper Honored Guest at Bridal Gift Shower

Miss Emily Draper, fiancee of Corporal Allan G. Smith, was extended a pre-nuptial courtesy Saturday, when a luncheon and gift shower were held in her honor at Fontana Inn, the hostess being Mrs. Howard Utman (Helen Jane Riley) of Los Angeles.

Luncheon was served in the patio and swimming in the pool was enjoyed during the afternoon.

Miss Draper was the recipient of many gifts of beautiful linen.

Having the privilege of participating in the party were Miss Draper, Miss Mary Ellen Rahn of Cucamonga, Miss Gwendolyn Ritter and Mrs. Herbert Humber of Ontario, Miss Mabellu Hutton of Alta Loma, Miss Katharine Fischer, Miss Florence Sanchez, Miss Dorothy Jean Neilson and Mrs. Utman.

Miss Draper and Corporal Smith are to be married in the Upland Methodist church on July 3.

Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith of 253 North Ninth avenue, and is now stationed in Colorado with the Army Air Corps.

Representatives of Church Return From General Conference

Dr. Henry G. Brubaker, the Rev. C. R. Heisey, pastor of the Upland church, and Bishop J. H. Wagaman, have returned from Stevensville, Ontario, Canada, where they attended the General Conference of the Brethren in Christ churches.

One of the major projects undertaken by the general church in recent years, says Dr. Brubaker, has been the relief work among European war refugees and the sharing in the maintenance of Civilian Public Service camps.

Dr. Brubaker is a member of the General Relief and Service committee for the church at large. He was well pleased to make the report that the quota budget for the Upland church was $835.25, and that the quota was over-subscribed by more than $200.

FORMER UPLANDER IN HEROIC FLIGHT

His heroic activities in attacking the Rumanian oil fields by bomber and in saving the life of a fellow pilot are placing the name of Lieut. Virgil D. Anderson on the lips of many of his former citizens and classmates here. He is a Chaffey high school and junior college graduate.

Young Anderson, who made his home here with the late Mrs. Alma D. Olson and who is a cousin of Ernest Olson and Mrs. Harland P. Horak, has distinguished himself following the first attack by U. S. aviators on the European continent, according to press reports from Istanbul, Turkey.

Five miles up in the air, the oxygen mask worn by Anderson's gunner failed. The Uplander aided his unconscious mate and later discarded his own mask to give to another crew member. While assisting his fellow crew members, Anderson suffered a slight bullet wound in the hand. His plane was being pursued by a German Messerschmitt 100 fighter plane, according to the press dispatches.

The young flyer confessed it was his first raid and expressed regret that he had to land in a neutral country — damaged oil lines forced his descent—because he would like to make some more trips.

On enlisting in the air corps, Anderson was sent to an air school at Taft. In due time he was advanced in the training program to Thunderbird Field, Phoenix, Ariz.; to Shrevport, La., and to a field in Florida.

He was married during the spring school vacation to June Hepp, a U. S. C. graduate, who is teaching in Inglewood.

During much of the time he was living here, the student worked at the Zenz confectionery. He visited his cousins frequently during his course at U. S. C. They last heard from him at about the time of his wedding in the spring. They were amazed to learn yesterday through Los Angeles newspapers that he was in an American hospital in Turkey and of his historic flight.

Stearns Ingalls, local accountant, who recently underwent a major operation at the San Antonio Community hospital, is showing improvement but it may be some time before he will be able to return to his home.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Meek, 690 East Eleventh street, are his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Meek and two daughters. The visitors are from Lake Orion, Mich., where Mr. Meek is a school principal. They will leave tomorrow after being here for several days.

William Kesner was among a party of fishermen who spent the week end at Big Bear lake. They went to the resort Saturday night with Sunday proving to be a successful day for bringing in many big fish. The Uplander, who resides with his family at 449 East Ninth street, reported a very successful trip.

Richard Highsmith returned to Upland yesterday afternoon from Chicago, where he completed a course in hospital administration at the University of Chicago. He will return to the Chicago area on September 1 and enter the Evanston hospital as an administrative interne. The Uplander, son of Mrs. Novella Highsmith, is one of nine students chosen to take the course. The American College of Hospital Administrators is cooperating in sponsoring the course, which is designed to train young men for positions as administrators of hospitals.

P. E. OFFICE SELLS $750 WAR STAMPS

Upland Pacific Electric depot is "keeping 'em rolling" in more ways than one these days, it is told by Agent Harry M. Wright, who takes pride in announcing that through the ticket wicket at the station his office has sold $750 worth of war savings stamps.

Strangely enough, $690 worth of these "tickets to victory" were purchased by children of the Edison school in Ontario, while of the balance of $60 worth, most were taken in change by people buying bus tickets.

War stamp sale at the Edison school was promoted by Mrs. John Tate, 219 East Fourth street, Ontario, and Mr. Tate being Mr. Wright's assistant at the Upland station, the savings stamps were purchased each week through the interurban office. Result was that each Wednesday, which had previously been observed by the school children as bank day, became war stamp day, the children devoting their savings to the purchase of war stamps instead of deposits.

To spur the sale of war savings stamps, a contest between rooms of the school was instituted, with the third grade coming out the winners. As a reward for having shown the greatest volume of purchases of "tickets to victory", the third graders of the Ontario school, which is attended by children from the southern portion of Upland, were given a party with ice cream and cake and all the trimmings by Mrs. Tate.

Roads to Romance Association Names San Bernardinans

San Bernardino county citizens and civic leaders recently elected to serve the Roads to Romance association for the coming year include: Leo E. Nonrath of San Bernardino, elected vice-president; while William Milligan, president of Redlands chamber of commerce; Arthur Walker, secretary of the San Bernardino county chamber of commerce, and Thomas Conway, Fontana postmaster, were all elected directors of the association.

The Roads to Romance association plans to continue its activities, and now, more than ever, will increase its efforts to secure tourists who are attracted to the west coast by having relatives and friends in the armed forces, defense plants or other government busiess in Southern California.

Mrs. Eugene Glass Succumbs; Burial To Occur in East

Mrs. Eugene Glass, 463 East Ninth street, passed away Friday evening after a brief illness. She was the mother of Mrs. Philip White of San Antonio Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Glass came to Upland from Los Angeles about two and a half years ago.

Besides her husband and daughter in Upland, Mrs. Glass leaves another daughter, Mrs. Thomas Heath of Buffalo, N. Y., and a granddaughter, Miss Mary Heath.

Mrs. Glass was an Episcopalian and the private committal service held Saturday at Draper's Ontario chapel was conducted by the Rev. George West Barrett, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church.

She formerly lived in Battle Creek, Mich., and burial will take place there, the body being accompanied east by Mr. Glass and Mrs. White. Mrs. Heath and her husband, an Episcopal minister, will come to Battle Creek from Buffalo and the Rev. Mr. Heath will conduct the funeral service.

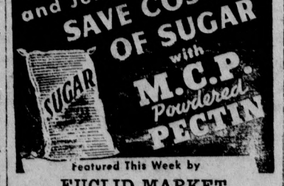

Mrs. White and her father expect to be away for about six weeks.

Before her marriage 52 years ago, Mrs. Glass was a school teacher at Janesville, Wis. After moving with Mr. Glass to Battle Creek, she became a leader in educational, religious and social affairs. She was one of the organizers and first president of the Battle Creek Woman's club. One of the outstanding events was a meeting to enable parents to become acquainted with the school teachers, this being a forerunner of the P.-T.A.

With Mr. Glass, who was a member of the Michigan Press association, Mrs. Glass traveled extensively in Michigan and Canada.

On Mr. Glass' retirement from newspaper business, they traveled around the world in 1924.

Her death occurred on the couple's 52nd wedding anniversary.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Logg, 1619 North Roosevelt, Pasadena, welcomed the birth of a baby daughter whose arrival occurred at 8:55 p.m. Saturday, June 20, at San Antonio Community hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Revis, 1993 Sixth street, LaVerne, are proud parents of a son who can always have the longest birthday in the year, his arrival occurring on the first day of summer, Sunday, June 21, at San Antonio Community hospital.

A son was born Sunday in Berkeley to Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Haas and that happy event conferred upon Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Alderfer the title of "grandparents.' The new mother is the former Pearl Alderfer. The little tot has been named Larry Edward.

Bill Standlea Is Example of Soldier Wanted by Marines

Praise by Col. Walter C. Sweeney, Jr., U. S. army, of the astounding, historic stand made by United States marines at Guam island warmly bespoke the courage and determination which characterizes the Leathernecks. And in this connection, Uplanders are justly proud of the fact that Pvt. Bill Standlea, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Standlea, 1192 East Ninth street, was a member of that group which gave such a good account of itself before being taken prisoners to be interned in Japan.

"Young men between the ages of 17 and 33 years should not apply for non-combatant service with the U. S. marine corps," says Staff Sergeant Lloyd E. Stevenson, marine corps recruiting officer for San Bernardino and Riverside counties, located in the Federal building, San Bernarino.

With the exception of a limited number of enlistments and commissions for older men to serve in the United States for the duration, there is no such word in the Leatherneck's vocabulary as "Non-combatant", says the sergeant, "and the average young man who enters the marine corps recruiting office is almost always desirous of adventure and a good fight". Men not desirous of fighting this country's enemies should never make an appearance in any marine corps recruiting office.

Enlistments in the marines are open at present, but it is hardly a question of securing the number of men required as it is to secure number of men most fit to serve with the marines. Since December 7, 1941, a few men with minor physical defects have been enlisted because of the outstanding patriotic spirit expressed by the applicant.

Temperance Union Presents Program By Flower Mission

Flower Mission day was observed by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Friday, when a varied program was presented by the local flower mission chairman during the all-day meeting held at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Ralph H. Marr, president, opened the meeting at 10:30 and during the business session the members voted to contribute $5 to China Relief and they also decided that the Union treasury should be drawn upon to supply the equipment for the sewing kits and bedside bags the members are making for soldiers' camps and hospitals.

Following the contributed dish luncheon, Mrs. Wm. I. Doole conducted the devotional service and Mrs. A. E. Clauson, flower mission chairman, presented the program.

The story of the life of Jessie Cassady, originator of the flower mission project, was given by Miss Lillian J. Williams.

Mrs. P. C. Tubbs told of Frances E. Willard's "love of flowers and of folk", and she read a true story, "A Rose Behind the Bars", telling of the good influence exerted upon the life of a prisoner by a rose. Mrs. Ralph H. Marr sang "More Like the Master".

Resolutions passed by the recent national Baptist convention and the Presbyterian General Assembly advocating the barring of liquor from the vicinity of army camps, was read by Mrs. W. L. Keown.

Announcement was made of the winners in the temperance essay and poster contests conducted by the Union in the Upland schools.

Funeral Service For Jack Harris Held Saturday

Funeral service for Jack Harris, who passed away last Thursday, was held Saturday afternoon at Stone's chapel, with the Rev. John B. Cavitt, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in San Bernardino, officiating.

The chapel was filled to capacity with friends who gathered to pay tribute to his memory and there were many beautiful flowers.

Accompanied by Mrs. Earl H. Johnson, Roger Moore sang "Goin' Home" and "The Old Rugged Cross."

Active pallbearers were Charles Gage, Henry Dybsand, Allen Mitchell, Dr. W. R. Farmer, Sam Barker and L. J. Confer.

Honorary pall bearers were members of the Volunteer Fire department, of which Mr. Harris was a member. Some of the firemen were out of town, those serving as honorary pallbearers being Chief J. W. Voth, Chief of Police E. C. Mehl, Howard Paulin, Amos R. Colborn, Darwin Brest, Ralph Palmer, Cecil Chambers, C. K. Francisco, Mark H. Bailey, Clyde Duncan, Paul Benton, Harry Plum and Harry M. MAKE CHINA RELIEF PAYMENT IN UPLAND

Why should we help China, is a question that is ably answered in an explanation contributed by Dr. Samuel Hughes, chairman of the China Relief campaign in Upland.

Dr. Hughes submits:

"Every American is now being solicited to contribute to many worthy causes. May we suggest that the relative merits of these appeals can be appropriately determined by the relationship of each project to the all-important objective of winning the war and winning it quickly?

"The importance of winning the war quickly cannot be overstressed, for a long war—even with victory—means national and world exhaustion with an overburdening debt structure, the destruction of values—spiritual and social as well as material—with the total amount may be raised higher still as returns continue to come in.

CRAIG'S PICTURES IN ATWOOD WINDOW

Two paintings by Tom Craig, nationally famous artist and member of the Craig family of Upland, will be placed on display Wednesday in the Atwood store window and many people are eagerly awaiting the opportunity to see the pictures.

One, "The Bunkhouse at Fort Ross," was painted by Mr. Craig while on a visit to the old fort, established by a Russian colony in the northern part of the state in the early days of California exploration. This painting won wide acclaim when exhibited in the California Palace of the Legion of Honor and in the Foundation of Western Art gallery.

The other picture, titled "The Avenue" shows a scene near Old Quebec in Canada. It also has been exhibited in prominent art galleries, where it was highly praised by critics.

PICTURES DONATED

These two paintings have been generously donated by Mr. Craig for the benefit of the Fourth of July garden fete to be held at the garden home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stevens, 1690 North San Antonio avenue, under Red Cross sponsorship.

Directly in charge of the festival, which will begin at 6:30 p.m., Saturday, July 4, is the Red Cross Camp and Hospital Service Council committee, including Mrs. John B. Craig, chairman; Mrs. Wallace C. Taylor and Mrs. Stevens.

All proceeds from the supper, booths, games, etc., will be used to equip day rooms for soldier's at the Ontario Air Base.

Since the Red Cross cannot purchase and re-sell any article, the committee is asking for donations of money, and of any kind of handicraft for the booths, etc., and anyone wishing to make a contribution of material or money may see either member of the committee.

The benefit fete is planned as a community-wide Fourth of July celebration and, with the special musical program to be given by Ponce Espino and Carlos Tarin, the games, the booths, the supper, etc., the event is taking on almost the aspects of a county fair.

Everybody will be welcome. There will be no admission charge. Supper tickets are now on sale.

Earnestness is enthusiasm tempered by reason.

Men do not realize how great a revenue economy is.

CLEANUP OF FIRE HAZARDS ORDERED

With lot posting authorizing the final phase of the annual lot cleanup voted by Upland city council at its meeting Friday, Fire Chief J. W. Voth states that the clearing of lots this year is about 80 per cent completed.

The larger part of lot clearing this year, the fire chief points out, has been done by the individual effort of local property owners. Usually, he says, about 75 lots have to be posted for clearing by the city at this time of year. However, this year only about 15 lots need posting at this time, it is said.

Special attention of residents is directed by Chief Voth to the fact that there are still a number of back yards which need cleanup attention and should be taken care of at once. These, he said, include spaces around garages, barns and between buildings.

MERCHANTS STAGE RALLY AS LEMON HOUSE WINS 13-5

Although Upland Lemon Growers romped home with an ample score of 13-5 in last night's softball game, Upland Merchants started to run them out in the last inning of play.

Entering their last time at bat with the score 13-0 against them, the Merchants finally got the bat together with the ball and staged a scoring outburst which almost became a race around the bases, tallying five runs which brought spectators to their feet. But the hitting streak did not last long enough for the Merchants to wrap up the game and the Growers packed it away safely.

Bert pitched a good game, while Grower runners who scored were Shugart 3, Bert 3, Byer 2, Dean 2, Bohen 2 and Ward 1, with three in the first, four in the second, three in the third, one in the fourth, and two in the fifth innings.

Lemon Grower players were: Alderfer, Bert, p; Bohen, c; Fisher, 1b; Dean, 2b; Shugart, 3b; Wilson, Byer, lf; Alderfer, Bert, cf; Leman, Ward, rf; Davis, ss.

Upland Merchant players were: Mitchell, Voth, p; Shaw, c; Malaise, 1b; DeWeese, Mehl, 2b; Coker, Joy, 3b; Creighton, lf; Couch, cf; Voth, Rowe, rf; Salisbury, Horak, ss.

Mrs. Plagens Dies Sunday; Services In Ontario Today

Mrs. Wm. H. Plagens, a resident of Upland for 36 years, passed away suddenly Sunday afternoon at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Aime, 1515 South Euclid avenue, Ontario.

Mrs. Plagens was a native of Germany and was 69 years of age. She came to the United States in her youth and lived in Richmond, Mich., before coming to Upland 42 years ago. She had made her home in Ontario for the past six years and she had many friends in both communities. She was a member of the First Lutheran church in Ontario.

Surviving Mrs. Plagens are two daughters, Mrs. W. C. Jones in Upland and Mrs. Aime in Ontario; a son, Arthur E. Burke in Venice; a sister, Mrs. Augusta Jacobson of Hynes, and a brother, Chas. F. Haman of Oxnard. Mr. Plagens passed away in 1935.

Funeral service was conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Richardson's chapel in Ontario, with the Rev. Carl F. Pohlman, Lutheran pastor, officiating. Music was provided by the church choir.

Interment was made in Bellevue cemetery.

NAVAL HOSPITAL INVITES LEAGUE

Members of Upland city council together with other members of the Citrus Belt Division of the League of California Cities have been invited to hold the next League meeting this Friday evening at the U. S. naval hospital at Corona. On this occasion they are to meet in the main dining room of the naval hospital as guests of the U. S. navy.

Principal speaker on the evening's program will be Captain Jensen, who was an eye-witness of the Japanese bombing at Pearl Harbor. Other special guests will be Mayor Fletcher Bowron of Los Angeles and the chief of police of that city.

City representatives are invited to arrive at the hospital early for conducted tours of the hospital and grounds.

Every noble activity makes room for itself.

The greater the difficulty, the greater the glory.

Mrs. Puckett and Bert Reed Winners Of Mixed Foursome

Winners of the popular foursome tournament at the Red Hill Country club are Mrs. Mildred R. Puckett and Bert Reed.

The championship match was played Sunday with the winners defeating Miss Jane Yahres and B. L. Bergstrom. The score was 4 and 3.

Council, Fire Chief Agree To Disagree

Position of fire chief of Upland, vacated last week when Upland city council voted acceptance of Chief J. W. Voth's resignation, has not as yet been filled, it is announced today by Mayor Eugene G. Nisbet.

Following a meeting between a committee of the council and Chief Voth, the latter indicated that he still could not consider returning to the position of fire chief unless there was a complete separation of the fire and police departments.

Further explaining his stand, Chief Voth felt that the recent adjustment of his salary by the council left much to be desired. He pointed out that before, he had been receiving $150 a month plus $15 for maintenance of his car, which he uses for his work. The adjusted salary gives him $175 a month, but, he pointed out, he still must maintain his car out of this sum for use at work. He maintains that this runs to at least $25 a month, leaving him an actual salary of but $150, or $5 less per month than his first truck driver.

Fire is the test of gold; adversity of strong men.
